Community Development and Social Welfare Programs Led by ARC

ARC is a prophecy-fulfilling charitable organization running several community development and social welfare programs. Aliyah Return Center Lighthouse is one such program offering quality housing assistance to lone soldiers. It is an ambitious project started with the objective to accommodate retired soldiers in society. The good thing is that this project has achieved a high success rate and popularity.

We welcome retired soldiers with open hands. We provide them with affordable housing and quality assistance. We understand needs and are ready to provide real help. The good thing is that we have the means to support soldiers. However, it isn't the only social program we run. Our NGO is a frontrunner in helping people in Israel," said the owner of ARC.

Supporting new immigrants is also a key area of focus. Our community aid Israel program is directed at making the necessary arrangements for newcomers. We welcome them to the holy land of Israel and promise quality housing and other essential support. We also have programs for linguistic development, cultural acquisition, and employment generation for new settlers.

We not only help communities, but also develop land. It is an initiative to provide green cover and surroundings. We plant trees and urge donors to come forward in support of this program. It is a noble cause not only for Israel but for the entire world. It is an effort to strengthen the environment. Together, we can reclaim the barren lands and convert them into fertile areas.

Volunteerism is our biggest asset. We educate and encourage people across the globe to come forward to help the needy and poor in Israel. It is our collective responsibility to support lone soldiers, immigrants, and needy families. We are here to help everyone. You can also participate in our effort and help build a better tomorrow," said the owner of the Israel charity organization.
